taffeta, made in a similar style, and carrying bouquets of ferns. These included Misses Annie Belle Walton, of Staunton, N. C.; Natalie McFadden, of Richmond; Lella Sanford, of Orange, and Bessie Cammon, of Fredericksburg. Little Miss Arianna Green, of Fredericksburg, in white accordion pleated orandy finished with lace, acted as flower girl, carrying a French bouquet of pink and white rose petals. Dr. Philip S. Smith, of Abingdon, was best man, and the ushers were John Bocek, of Richmond; D. P. Clemmer, William Hawkins, of Richmond, and James P. Hammond, of Fredericksburg. The bride, wearing a "Lohengrin" was rendered as a professional and Mendelssohn's Wedding March as the party left the church, where during the ceremony the organist played "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms." A small reception in the home of the bride's parents followed. Later in the evening Richmond and Mrs. Smith left for their honeymoon.

Of Interest Here.
Dr. Thomas Fell, president of St. John's College, and Mrs. Fell, with their sons, Edgar and John Fell, who have been spending the summer at the cottage at Stony Man Camp, Skyland, Va., will shortly return to their residence on College Green in Annapolis. At the fancy ball given recently at Stony Man by Dr. and Mrs. George F. Freeman, the musical number, which was one of the principal features of the occasion, was danced by Dr. Fell with Miss Scott, of Richmond, both being costumed in court dress of the Colonial period.

Miss Scott and Miss Frederica Campbell have been at Stony Man for most of the summer season.

Prominent Engagements.
Mr. and Mrs. William G. Parker, of Portsmouth and Virginia Beach, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth, to John Tyler, of Williamsburg, only son of Dr. Lyon G. Tyler, president of William and Mary College, and Mrs. Annie Tucker Tyler, the wedding will take place this month at Virginia Beach. Mr. Tyler occupied the chair of mathematics at William and Mary for several years. He is widely and prominently related in Richmond, and his coming wedding is an event of interest.

Leaves for Blacksburg.
Gravatt Coleman, of 519 West Grace Street, in spending this week with relatives in Roanoke, before resuming his studies at the V. P., where he is assistant to the commandant, with the title of colonel.

Return to Richmond.
Mr. and Mrs. Eppa Hutton, Jr., and their young son, Eppa Hutton, Jr., are established at their home on West Franklin Street, after an extended stay in Warrenton. The Huttons spent the late summer season at Fisher's Island, Mr. and Mrs. John N. Taylor here, after motoring through New England with Mr. and Mrs. Oliver J. Sands and visiting fashionable resorts in the North. John Taylor, Jr., returned with his parents from Maine, where he has been in a camp for several months. Miss Elizabeth Taylor, who spent the summer in camp in the White Mountains of New Hampshire, has also returned to the city.

Cason-Gibbons.
Mrs. T. S. Gibbons announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Margaret, to James Irving Cason. The ceremony will take place on October 3 at the residence of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Charles E. Bailey, in New York City.

Concerning John Powell's Return.
September 12 was a marked day in Roanoke musical circles. Under the auspices of the Roanoke Musical Club, the city's cherished young artist, John Powell, gave one of his recitals. Ever since he finished his collegiate course at the University of Virginia he had been studying and performing piano music in European capitals until war conditions made it inadvisable for him to resume his residence in this country. An immense audience assembled, and when the music began, the attention and applause given testified to the appreciation of Roanoke's music lovers. The only support furnished was by a gifted young girl, Miss Bula Ray Shull, of Roanoke, who was trained in vocal music at the Boston Conservatory. Her voice was sweet and powerful, and her modest efforts were received with warm enthusiasm. Mr. Powell showed wonderful skill in execution and even in the mystery of a delicate, yet telling strength and power upon occasion.

Benefit Card Party.
Mrs. Edward Smith, of 210 North Laurel Street, will give a benefit card party at her residence on Monday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. The proceeds will be used for the benefit of the Catholic Women's Club. Prizes will be awarded for the best scores and refreshments will be served. There will be fifteen tables and the party will be prettily decorated for the occasion.

Make Home in Norfolk.
Mr. and Mrs. G. Watson James, Jr., formerly of Richmond, have recently moved to Norfolk to make their home, and are residing with Mrs. James's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hudgins, in Georgia Avenue, Colonial Place. Mrs. James, who studied violin playing with Henry Schradieck, is an accomplished musician and will be an addition to music circles there. Mr. and Mrs. James made their home in New York last year, immediately after their marriage. Mrs. James was formerly Miss Annie Louise Bernhardt.

Return to Port mouth.
Miss Flora Salomon, of Portsmouth, who has been spending four weeks with relatives and friends in this city, is returning to her home this morning. Miss Salomon was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Louis Salomon, of 315 Grove Avenue, for a part of her stay in Richmond.

In Maryland.
Mrs. Stanley Hoen and her little daughter, Helen, are spending the month of September with Mrs. Helen Hoen, in Maryland. They are now at Ocean City, Md., and will later move to Loret, Md.

Move Into New Home.
Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Divine have moved into the house belonging to Miss Elizabeth Collins, of Ashland, which they have bought for the winter and spring months. They have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. John Gasson Caperton and children, of Richmond, who will remain with them for several weeks. Mrs. Divine was before her marriage Miss. Boutin, of Paris, France, and spent last season in Richmond.

At Belvoir.
Miss Ursula Harrison has returned to "Belvoir," the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fairfax Harrison, near The Plains, after spending the summer months at Bar Harbor, where her grandmother, Mrs. Burton Harrison, has established at "Sea Urchins" her cottage there. Miss Harrison will spend the fall season at her home in Virginia, and in the early winter will sail for an extended stay abroad.

Mr. Landrum Honored.
Mrs. G. T. Davis and Mrs. A. K. Vest, of 1412 West Grace Street, entertained Wednesday evening in honor of Earl Landrum, of Williamsburg. Miss Mooney rendered several piano selections and refreshments were served. Mrs. Harman presided at the punch bowl.

Those present were: Misses Ruth Harman, Rosabel Brady, Gladys Davis, Mamie Mooney, Julia Dunn, Susie Williams, Ruth Miles, Ellen Gordon, James Brady, Hal Wilbur Barker, Ray Harman, Christian Vest, Hunter Vest, Mr. Wilson, Mr. Wood, Mr. L. B. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Vest, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Harman and Mrs. G. T. Davis.

Benefit Concert.
A very successful entertainment participated in by Mrs. Crouch, of Richmond, elocutionist, with John Mill, of Richmond, and W. S. Eastwood, of West Point, soloists, was given at Wacom on Tuesday evening. Miss Brantly Bray directed the affair and the net proceeds were for the benefit of Colosse church.

NEW MILLINERY

For the present moment the mandate of Paris proclaims the snug, close-fitting hat or the ultra large brim with low sloping crown. The approved colors and those lent prestige by the favor of the smartest among fashionables are black, purples, panard and rose taupe.

Many models reflect Spanish and Oriental influence, but the military dominance of France and Russia is still noted.

Mourning Hats

A notable collection. Subtly but surely proclaiming their Paris origin, these chapeaux are the productions of those famous French modistes whose edicts as to mourning millinery are absolute.

With all Europe in mourning, there must be an infinite variety of hats, appropriate for women of every age—of every type.

Thus the Kaufmann collection, assembled from every noteworthy source, is quite the most comprehensive in our history.

We direct especial attention to a showing of most becoming headgear for the matron. In respect to this type of hat, the Kaufmann Salons are unique both as to distinction of style and variety of assortment.

IN announcing the New Models the Corset Shop lays stress upon its unexampled service in fitting and expert sales assistance in individual problems.
